Leah Rollison has been serving as a health care advisor for BayCare Health Plans for nearly six years. Leah was born in upstate New York but grew up in Massachusetts and New Jersey before finishing high school in Ohio. She attended Ohio University but ended up moving to Nashville, Tennessee during college where she graduated from Middle Tennessee State University with a bachelor's degree. Leah moved from Nashville, TN to Hilton Head, SC where she started a local low-country restaurant called Lucky Rooster Kitchen + Bar. When she was over the restaurant industry, Leah relocated to the Tampa Bay area to be near family, and that's when she started her career in Medicare. Leah has two kids, a daughter (12) and a son (9). Leah is a true foodie and loves all things food: the tastes, culture and history and how it connects people. When she's not discovering new dishes or traveling, she loves being in and around water and with her kids.
