

Service Line Material Program

The Tampa Water Department's service line inventory is now available online.

Use the inventory to learn about the piping that brings water to your property. Some residents may receive a letter if their service line may need to be replaced or if the service line material needs to be identified.

Visit our website
tampa.gov/KnowYourPipes

The Water Department works with the Florida Department of Health and the U.S. EPA to provide our customers with clean, high-quality water.

Have questions? Call us!

(813) 272-8300

8am to 5pm, M-F

We strive to be as transparent as possible about the quality of your drinking water.