

Proclamation

Bob Buckhorn, Mayor

WHEREAS, a vital public service, Forensic Science is the application of science to criminal and civil laws, and it is normally identified with law enforcement and the prosecution of criminal cases; and

WHEREAS, used around the world, forensic sciences resolve civil disputes, justly enforce criminal laws and government regulations, and protect public health through objective scientific analysis that is vital in finding the truth and in seeking justice in legal proceedings; and

WHEREAS, an important part of the criminal justice system, public outreach, and crime prevention, forensic science dramatically improves and enhances the investigation of criminal activity, leading to the exoneration of the innocent and prosecution of the guilty; and

WHEREAS, crime scene investigators, forensic examiners, and forensic scientists, including the members of the Tampa Police Department's Forensic Investigation Unit (FIU) are dedicated to providing unbiased, accurate, and reliable analysis of evidence recovered, and committed to proper scientific investigations for the cause of justice; and

WHEREAS, National Forensic Science Week was established to recognize and advance quality forensic science, and to bring awareness to the public about the importance of forensic science in modern criminal justice and the dedication demonstrated by forensic professionals in our community and around the nation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Buckhorn, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the city of Tampa, Florida, do hereby proclaim August 7-13, 2016 as in the city of Tampa, Florida, and urge all citizens to join me in expressing appreciation for the committed forensic professionals for their devotion to truth and justice, and commitment to the safety and well-being of others.

Dated in Tampa, Florida, this 8th day of August, 2016.
