

Proclamation

Bob Buckhorn, Mayor

WHEREAS, in 1962, the late United States President John F. Kennedy signed into law a bill proclaiming May 15th of each year to be named as “Peace Officers Memorial Day” and the week in which it falls as “Police Week” a time of mourning for police officers killed in the line of duty and recognition of others who were injured protecting our citizens from harm; and

WHEREAS, our dedicated officers work with courage and dedication in protecting us against crime, violence and terrorism, and this observance will help us honor the memory of the fallen and recognize those who devote their lives to enforcing our laws; and

WHEREAS, since 1895 there have been thirty-one Tampa Police Officers killed in the line of duty and this observance provides the opportunity to honor the memory of these brave individuals who gave their lives to protect our citizens and community; and

WHEREAS, throughout our nation, more than 765,000 sworn law enforcement officers will participate in this official period of mourning; and

WHEREAS, this day of mourning will officially be held in Tampa, Florida on Wednesday, May 10, 2017.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Buckhorn, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the city of Tampa, Florida, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, May 10, 2017 as in the city of Tampa, Florida, and urge all citizens to join me in honoring the memory of these fallen officers and recognizing the members of our local law enforcement agencies for their continued commitment to enforcing our laws, bringing criminals to justice and making our community safer.

“LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS MEMORIAL DAY”

Dated in Tampa, Florida, this 10th day of May, 2017.

Bob Buckhorn

Mayor
