

Proclamation

Bob Buckhorn, Mayor

WHEREAS, thousands of United States' Armed Forces Troops have served America in times of peace and war, and through their dedication and sacrifices, our nation and its people have been assured safety and prosperity, and our freedoms, ideals and values protected; and

WHEREAS, many of these brave and committed men and women gave the ultimate sacrifice, their lives, during military service and their families left to mourn have also paid a great price for our nation; and

WHEREAS, dating back to World War I and a symbol of great honor that no one wants, a Gold Star Lapel Pin is presented by the United States Department of Defense to the spouses, parents and children of a fallen service member who was killed in combat or in support of certain military activities; and

WHEREAS, known as a Gold Star Family, flags or banners with a gold star are often displayed by the family to make others aware of the sacrifice their family member has made and to honor their service to our country, and sadly, additional stars are sometimes added to represent each military member who died should the family suffer more than one loss; and

WHEREAS, the City of Tampa wishes to take the opportunity during the 2018 Tribute to the Troops event held the weekend of March 24-25, 2018 to show appreciation to the Gold Star Families in our community and across the nation, and to honor their loved ones whose service will never be forgotten.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Buckhorn, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the city of Tampa, Florida, do hereby proclaim March 24-25, 2018 as in the city of Tampa, Florida, and urge all citizens to join me in honoring our nation's fallen military heroes and in expressing heartfelt gratitude to all Gold Star Families for their sacrifice in the defense of freedom and the American way of life.

Dated in Tampa, Florida, this 9th day of February, 2018.

Bob Buckhorn

Mayor
