

Proclamation

Bob Buckhorn, Mayor

WHEREAS, water is one of Tampa, Florida's most valuable natural resources, and a basic and essential element of life; and

WHEREAS, the health, comfort, safety, and economic vitality of the Tampa community and its citizens depend on a readily available supply of safe, high-quality potable water, and our tap water delivers public health and fire protection, and it supports our economy and quality of life for our area; and

WHEREAS, any measure of a successful society – low mortality rates, economic growth and diversity, productivity, and public safety – is greatly influenced by its access to safe drinking water; and

WHEREAS, many dedicated men and women have made, and continue to make significant contributions to the development, operation, and daily maintenance of our public water systems including the City of Tampa Water Department, and it has greatly benefited all members of the community; and

WHEREAS, we are all charged with being stewards of the water infrastructure upon which future generations will depend on to receive clean drinking water, and it is important to remember the value of our water resources; and

WHEREAS, the City of Tampa encourages each citizen to help join in the efforts to help protect our source waters that includes the Hillsborough River from pollution, to practice water conservation, and to get involved in local water issues by understanding our region's surface water, groundwater and alternative water sources.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Buckhorn, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the city of Tampa, Florida, do hereby proclaim the week of May 6-12, 2018 as in the city of Tampa, Florida and urge all citizens help to protect our water sources from trash and polluted runoff, practice water conservation, encourage the use of reclaimed water as a supplement to drinking water resources, and support the efforts of the individuals who are dedicated to ensuring our city's growing water needs will be met in the safest, most efficient, and expeditious manner.

Dated in Tampa, Florida, this 9th day of March, 2018.

Bob Buckhorn

Mayor
