

Proclamation

Bob Buckhorn, Mayor

WHEREAS, violence in the United States of America and around the world continues to be a major social crisis in society and is vital that communities and individuals be educated about violence, and work together on solutions and prevention of violent acts; and

WHEREAS, the safety and quality of life of all men, women and children is paramount, and individuals have the right to live their lives violence free, and acts of violence, including gun violence, affect people of all racial, cultural and economic backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, each day, more than 90 individuals in the United States are killed by gun violence with hundreds of others injured and Americans are 25 times more likely to be killed with guns than those in other developed countries according to a 2016 American Journal of Medicine report, and acts of gun violence are devastating for not only the victims, but also for their families and friends, and to prevent future violations of our citizens, it is crucial to foster public awareness of the causes and effects of violence; and

WHEREAS, National Gun Violence Awareness Day was established by a coalition of organizations to bring attention of the need to address gun violence in our nation, and it is held annually on the first Friday in the month of June, and it is in honor of the late Hadiya Pendleton, a teenager who marched in President Barack Obama's second inaugural parade and was tragically shot and killed just a few weeks later; and

WHEREAS, orange has been selected as the National Gun Violence Awareness official color, chosen by Hadiya Pendleton's classmates to commemorate her life, and it is a bold color that hunters wear to announce themselves to other hunters, and it symbolizes the value of human life; and

WHEREAS, to bring awareness to the Tampa Bay area about gun violence, the Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America, survivors, families, community leaders and partners with a vision of ending the epidemic of gun violence are hosting #WearOrange on Saturday, June 2, 2018 at The Portico in downtown Tampa, and the organizers are encouraging attendees to wear the color Orange in support of this initiative; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Buckhorn, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the city of Tampa, Florida, do hereby proclaim Friday, June 1, 2018 as in the city of Tampa, Florida, and urge all residents to join in this important awareness campaign by wearing the color orange on Friday, June 1, 2018, and assist in creating a community free from violence of all forms.

"NATIONAL GUN VIOLENCE AWARENESS DAY"

Dated in Tampa, Florida, this 7th day of May, 2018.

Bob Buckhorn

Mayor

